The maps and data provided by the PEC and its member agencies are considered "as is" without warranty or any representation. The user acknowledges and accepts all inherent limitations of the maps and data, including the fact that the maps and associated data we have provided do not represent a survey. Any use of the maps, images, data, or content provided by the PEC is at the sole risk of the user, and, by proceeding, user does hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the PEC and its member agencies from any and all claims, actions, costs or damages of any nature, asserted by the user or by another, rising from the use of the data. The PEC provides no warranties, expressed or implied, concerning the accuracy, completeness or reliability of this data for any other particular use. Furthermore, the PEC and its member agencies assume no liability whatsoever associated with the use or misuse of such data. The data may have an inherent number of errors which may include but are not limited to the following types of errors:

- a) Spatial Errors - The areas depicted by these maps are approximate, and are not necessarily accurate to surveying or engineering standards. XY coordinates may be in error by several feet or more.
- b) Registration errors - GIS data layers may not overlay each other correctly.
- c) Attribute errors - Database information may be incorrect.
- d) Currency errors - GIS data layers, databases and documents may not be the most current available or may not depict the specified time. All data is subject to constant change. Data input lags real-world changes by varying periods of time.
